VFW Urging 2-Way Radios In Police Cars

Sponsorship of Move Taken by Veterans' Organization

Sponsorship of a movement to obtain two-way radio communication for Redwood City police cars was announced here by Corp. James Lindsay Wilson Post 2310, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

J. W. Dean, chairman of a committee named at the Sept. 5 meeting to propose the new development to increase efficiency of the local department, said that indorsements of all other organizations in Redwood City were being sought. He said a resolution passed by the VFW would be presented to the city council at its meeting Monday night.

Pointing out that the police cars already are equipped with radio receiving sets but that that system "is not completely effective until equipment is provided for the exchange of messages between police cars and central police stations," the resolution passed by the VFW states:

SPEED UP MESSAGES

"The installation of such additional equipment would enable officers in police cars immediately to transmit urgent messages to police headquarters; and

"Whereas police service should at all times be ready for unexpected emergencies which from time to time arise out of serious accidents, crimes, insanities, fires and similar occurrences in remote places, and at night and other times when ordinary telephone service is not readily available, and when it would be necessary for a police officer to leave the place of emergency and thereby decrease the effectiveness of the police service, unless police cars are equipped to transmit messages to police and fire department headquarters; and

"Whereas most, if not all, the principal cities on the Peninsula have equipped their police cars with two-way radios, and the value to the public greatly exceeds the cost thereof,

URGED ON ALL CARS

"Now therefore be it resolved that this organization . . . advocates the installation of such two-way radio equipment on all police cars in Redwood City and hereby institutes a movement to urge the City Council of Redwood City to provide for the early installation of such equipment on all its police cars."

The resolution is signed by C. E. Rudisill, commander, and R. V. Hill, adjutant. Working with Dean on the committee are Harry Ellen, William Handley and Commander Rudisill.

Resolutions approving the movement started by the VFW and urging the city council "to provide for the early installation of such equipment on all its police cars" will be submitted to other organizations for approval, Dean said.

From an embrasure of besieged Fort Zinderneuf, Foreign Legion outpost, Gary Cooper, as the gallant "Beau," faces death with a smile, heroically repelling the attacks of a wild desert tribe, the Touaregs, in Paramount's exciting new production of the great adventure-romance, "Beau Geste." When the picture opens on Sunday at the Sequoia Theater, Ray Milland and Robert Preston, will be seen as his brothers in arms, "John" and "Digby."

COUNTY HEALTH BOARD TO STUDY NEW APPLICATIONS FOR DIRECTOR

With its first nominee, Dr. John D. Fuller of Santa Cruz, out of the contest for the post of director of health and welfare of San Mateo County, the county board of health and welfare has prepared to retrace its steps and forward another name to County Executive Frederick Peterson.

Asked what the health board intended to do, Dr. A. E. O'Neill, chairman, said it was up to Peterson. Peterson declared the task of making the nomination was plainly the duty of the health board. Dr. O'Neill said the board would meet next Monday to take further action.

Dr. Fuller was nominated by three to two vote of the health board after an acrimonious meeting Sept. 12. Dr. Fuller withdrew his application when the board of supervisors delayed action on confirmation of his appointment.

Meanwhile, backwash of the San Mateo County dispute was being felt in Santa Cruz County. Members of the board of supervisors filed without reading 12 letters recommending that Dr. Fuller be retained. Over protests of Mrs. B. D. Wilder of Ben Lomond, one supervisor characterized them as "propaganda."

R. C. HOME BRINGS $25,000

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ichelson of San Francisco have purchased the Grasso home with a 330-foot frontage on Arlington Rd., Peninsula Title Guarantee Corp. announced. The price was in excess of $25,000. Sellers were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grasso, Celestina Grasso, Mr. and Mrs. Guido Grasso.

New York's estate tax collections of $33,650,000 in 1937 were the largest collections in that classification of any state.

New Buicks On Display

The new Buick line for 1940, consisting of six series of automobiles, two of which are entirely new, is announced today and models are on display in the showroom of Clarkson Motor Co., local Buick dealer.

The two new series, the Super and Roadmaster, are highly advanced cars, introducing ultra modern features of styling and advance engineering practices. The other four, the Special, Century and Limited (on two wheelbases) are improved versions of previous models with a long array of advance in body styling, chassis and equipment, according to Clarkson.

Notwithstanding the sweeping improvements in style, quality and performance, the delivered prices of the 1940 Buick cars are substantially lower than last year, with reductions ranging from $79 to $350, the dealer stated.

"In addition, the new low prices will include as standard equipment numerous accessories which were not on the 1939 cars," he said.

"Outstanding structural and design features, including such important items as improved torque tube drive; independent front wheel suspension, Buicoil rear spring suspension, ride stabilization fore and aft, more powerful hydraulic brakes, and improved lighting and electrical equipment, are incorporated in the cars.

"In addition, the 1940 cars have improved front and rear direction signals, Foamtex rubber seat cushions, engine turned instrument panels, sealed beam safety headlights, entirely new frames, new engine mountings, new carburetion, addition of oil filters on all engines, better direct steering linkage, improved handishift gear control, marked improvement in shock absorber equipment, new safety free reeling inside rear door handles, windshield wiper boosters, larger tires, an improved system of tire changing, and a host of other refinements marking them as complete and luxuriously equipped automobiles."

FIESTA ARCHERS GIVEN TROPHY BY SPORT CLUBS

Through George Zehender, of the Redwood City Sportsmen's Club, the Affiliated Sportsmen's Clubs of the Peninsula have presented to the eight archers who participated in the Ninth Annual San Mateo County Floral Fiesta a gold trophy in recognition of their work.

This was announced today by Hal E. Landers, Works Progress Administration recreation division leader of Redwood City, who instructs the eight youthful Fiesta participants in archery techniques.

Six of the participants are from Redwood City, while two are from Burlingame. All are in the 12-15 age group. The Redwood City members are Shirley De Armond, Dolores Patchen, Edyth Springall, Patricia Schath, Claude Bergman and Douglas Corbin. Thomas Davies and Bill Reineke are from Burlingame.

Landers also announced that the Native Sons of the Golden West have voted to sponsor an archery tournament, to take place at Hawes Park next week. Further details will be given out later this week. The organization will give medals to the first three places.

Kansas woodlands cover 1,238,000 acres or 3,242,000 acres less than the original woodlands before the area was settled.

Six-Man Grid League Start Planned Oct. 9

Practice Contest Set For Friday Night At Hawes Park

Decision to open competition in Redwood City's first six-man football league on Monday, Oct. 9, was made on Monday when representatives of six teams met at the recreation building, 2101 Broadway, to draw up the league.

In the first actual competition the Falcon Athletic Club will meet the Ramblers in a practice tilt Friday night at Hawes Park, beginning at 8:45. The public is invited to attend, Recreation Director Alfred (Red) Morton said. All games will be played under the lights, with a white football.

All next week the field will be open for practice games. Monday night there will be held the final meeting for team sign-ups, in the recreation building. The schedule will be drawn up and any final rule corrections will be made. Absolutely no entries will be accepted after Monday night, Morton said. The meeting is set for 7:30 o'clock.

Peninsulans Win Degrees at U. C.

Degrees won by Peninsulans during the University of California Summer sessions were announced this week in Berkeley.

Those hopored are: Donald Hale, San Mateo, Hastings College of Law; Leonard McKee, Daly City, chemistry; Ralph Allen Birk, Burlingame, and Janis Hildebrant, Redwood City, letters and sciences; and Joel Hedgepeth, San Mateo, and Marshall Hughes, Redwood City, advanced degrees of master of science.

NEWS MENLO PARK

E. F. (Mike) Hara has returned from his vacation spent in Northern California and will resume his former position as first lieutenant in the Menlo Park Fire Department. Mr. Hara had been acting chief for 15 months until the return of Chief Thomas Cuff last week.

Rev. Father Mark Lacey is enjoying a well-merited vacation at the termination of which he will be assigned to a new parish. He was assistant priest at the Church of the Nativity for the past year and a half. Father Connelly of Santa Rosa has been appointed Father Lacey's successor.

Fremont Memorial Park on Santa Cruz Ave. is leveled off and improved preparatory to the annual Armistice Day celebration to be held there by the city officials and members of the American Legion.

Mrs. Bogue and Mrs. George Angus motored to Pittsburg Tuesday to visit the former's relatives.

Mrs. David Moore will leave for Yuma, Ariz., with her three children to join Mr. Moore. The children will resume their studies there. The eldest girl, Dorothy, will remain in Menlo Park to enter Sequoia High School. The Moore family spent the Summer with Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. A. L. Gale, Glenwood Ave.

Mr. Cotton, owner of Menlo Terrace, adjoining Hermosa Way, through a Redwood City promoter is about to erect three model houses on the tract, a permit for which was granted by the city council recently. Forty more will be erected in a short time. The buildings are to be modern in every way to attract home buyers to this favored locality.

Work on the new gymnasium at St. Joseph's Parochial School was started Monday and is to be completed Nov. 1 at a cost of $7000. Weeden Brothers have been awarded the contract. The building is much needed and will fill a great want for the school of 200 pupils.

J. Ohminus is about to start two buildings alongside his other stores on El Camino Real. The old building on the corner has been removed and the two stores are to go up in the rear.

Mrs. P. Eyre and her daughter, Mrs. Madison, have closed their home at Atherton and gone to the city for the Winter months.

Mrs. W. H. Weeden gave a party this week for her granddaughter, Emma Roberta Lindquist. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served in a pink and blue decorated dining room. Emma celebrated her 10th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ditman returned to their home in Tacoma, Wash., this week. They enjoyed several trips to Treasure Island while visiting Mrs. Ditman's brothers, Wayne and Oscar Lindquist.

Texas law authorizes a teacher to use "lawful violence" if necessary in disciplining students. But it adds: "Only that degree of force must be used which is necessary to effect such purpose."

Speeder Pays For Passing Patrolman

In justice court on Monday, Judge E. I. McAuliffe fined J. H. Cantino, San Francisco salesman, $10 for speeding 60 miles an hour on Bayshore Hwy. Cantino passed a state patrol car.

Three other speeders escaped with $5 fines: Adrian H. Cox of Avenal, Clyde F. Trudell of Burlingame, and Sandy G. MacPherson of Long Beach.

August T. Anderson, San Francisco, paid $2.50 for speeding 58 miles an hour.

The judge gave suspended sentences to four drivers: Daniel F. Lynch, San Francisco electrician, charged with speeding 75 miles an hour; Raymond P. Cirelli, San Francisco, charged with failing to stop for a school bus; Albert F. Moore, San Jose, cited for speeding 58 miles an hour, and Harold V. Johnson, 833 Clinton Ave., Redwood City, also charged with failing to stop for a school bus. Lynch told the judge he was speeding to San Jose in answer to a call that his mother was critically ill.

The city traffic court docket today showed fines of $16.50 levied by Judge McAuliffe. Glen S. Stoner and Luther Gentry Jr. paid $2.50 each for speeding, and Manuel Vierra the same sum for passing an automatic signal. One-dollar parking fines were paid by R. P. Sorensen, Joseph Territo, R. B. Morris Sr., Warren Thomas, George Hargrave, Joe Lodi, John Armo, T. F. Murphy and Emmett Murphy. Parking tag penalties against Thereas Luba and Carl R. Fatzer were suspended.

'Nothing Irregular' In Handling of Funds

The completed state investigation of charges made by Labor's Non-Partisan League that there had been "juggling" of welfare funds in San Mateo County disclosed here, as did a partial investigation as reported Saturday, Sept. 16, in the Tribune, that there was "nothing irregular" in the handling of the funds, according to Miss Martha Chickering, director of the State Public Welfare Department.

Miss Chickering ordered the inquiry at the request of Governor Olson's office, which had been appealed to by the labor league.

Lock Drug, Beauty Stores Here Sold

Sale of Lock Drug Co., Broadway and Arguello St., to Natale J. Mangini and John S. Rosselli by E. L. Lock, owner, who has operated a pharmacy in Redwood City for 17 years, was announced Wednesday.

The two new owners, both former San Francisco druggists, also have taken over Lock's Beauty Shop, operated in conjunction with the pharmacy, from Mrs. Lock. The building in which the business is housed is leased from Marco Dondero of San Francisco, and lease of the structure was taken up by the new owners with their purchase of the business.

Mangini has been living in Redwood City for the past six years, and at present resides at 122 Nueva St. Rosselli plans to take up his residence here immediately, after having spent two years in San Francisco in his own establishment and a year in Santa Rosa with a large drug concern.

Lock expressed his thanks to the community for the patronage his store has enjoyed during his business ventures here. He said that he and Mrs. Lock have no immediate plans for returning to business, but that he will continue in the store for the present, assisting Mangini and Rosselli.

Model Home Given National Publicity

When Jerome Draper, developer of Felton Gables subdivision in Menlo Park, recently entertained members of the editorial staff and photographers of The American Home, national magazine with a circulation of 1,600,000 copies monthly, he expected his Exposition model home to be mentioned when the October issue was published.

But Draper was completely flabbergasted this week when he got his copy of the magazine.

There was not one picture of the home, nor two. There were 12, no less, besides a sketch of the floor plans. And four of the pictures, in full color, formed the cover page of the magazine.

Four more, interiors, were in color inside.

Besides the pictures, there is an article titled "Were We Proud of 'Our' Ranch House!"

Not only national publicity for Draper and Felton Gabels, but for the Peninsula, and for two of its designers is given in the well-prepared article. They are Walter B. Snook, designer; and Willa C. Cloys (Mrs. Robert Carmack), landscape architect.

Although the house has been sold—in fact, was sold the first week it was opened last May—and the furniture was removed Sept. 10 when the exhibition ended, Draper will show the house by appointment until the new owner, Mrs. Helen Lake of San Francisco, takes possession.

The nizam of Hyderabad, who has $500,000,000 in gold, $2,000,000,000 in jewels, and an income of $50,000,000 a year, is probably the richest man in the world.

Community Chest Budget Is $11,500

Goal of the Redwood City Community Chest's 1939 financial campaign, which begins here next Monday night with a "kickoff" dinner at Sequoia High School, has been set at $11,500, Finance Chairman J. Elmer Morrish of the chest directorate announced here.

This is an increase over last year, made necessary by the rapidly expanding work of several of the six agencies participating in the chest. Both the Young Men's Christian Association and the Boy Scouts hope to have executives devote full time to the Redwood City area next year. At present, the YMCA has one man for the entire county; the Scouts, two men, both dividing their time over the county.

Sought by the chest are $3000 for the Boy Scouts; $2900 for the YMCA; $2100 for Girl Scouts; $1000 for Salvation Army; $1000 for San Mateo Preventorium; $200 for Redwood City Humane Society. Remainder of the budget would be used to pay expenses of the current campaign, take care of unpaid pledges, if any, and accumulate something to take care of next year's drive, it being the hope of directors to secure enough each year to conduct the next year's campaign and care for emergencies.

Last year the nearly $8800 pledged was all expended for expenses of the campaign and the six agencies. All the agencies have not received quite all their allotments due to some pledges remaining unpaid as yet.

Forest fire insurance is used in several foreign countries, but is not commercially obtainable in the United States at present.

21 Classes Now At Night School

With 25 more adults interested in cabinet making and similar woodcraft work enrolling in the Redwood City Night School's woodshop class, which met for the first time Monday night, the total enrollment at the school now stands at 370, according to Principal S. S. Mayo.

The class, which was held back for two weeks because the new shop buildings were incomplete at the start of the term, is under the direction of Tom Carleton. It is held every Monday and Wednesday at 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Mayo said the formation of a Toastmistresses' Club, similar to the local Toastmaster's Club, would be inaugurated at the school the first week of next month. Mrs. Alberta Peck, public speaking instructor at Sequoia, will be in charge, Mayo said.

At the present, according to the principal, there are 21 courses and 21 teachers, meeting a total of 41 times per week. All classes are held at the Sequoia plant, with the exception of citizenship and English classes for foreign born, which meets in the Central School at Menlo Park.

Following are the various courses, their instructors, and the number enrolled in each: Arts and crafts courses, 14, Mrs. Gladys Bruce; drafting, 17, Edwin De-Smith; flower arrangement, 45, Carma White; painting, 24, John Sommerville; photography, 20, Stella Boulware; sewing, 45, Mrs. Hazel Hansen; sheet metal, 16, Robert Poole; woodshop, 25, Tom Carleton.

Commercial — bookkeeping, 15, Carl Underwood; business English and English, 12, Evelyn Teal; business mathematics, 5, Carl Underwood; shorthand, 18, Miss Maribel Shimmin; typing, 32, Mrs. Grace Cavitt.

English — English for foreign born, including citizenship courses (both at Sequoia and at Menlo Park Central School) 90, Mrs. Roscoe Wyatt; drama (Community Players), 20, Claude Van Patten.

Language — Spanish, 12, Mrs. Alice Rose.

Mathematics, 10, Dr. William Iversen.

Music—Orchestra, 60, Max Gelber; drums (yet to organize), Ronald Spink.

Physical Education and Recreation — men's physical education, 24, James M. Eva; women's physical education, 28, Marie Farmer.

Social Science — Citizenship for foreign born, 90—includes those in English for foreign born, also — Mrs. Eleanor Faure.

Mayo said women are invited to compete with or against men in the Wednesday evening badminton classes in men's physical education.

The palace of former Kaiser Wilhelm II at Potsdam, Germany, had 600 rooms—and two bathrooms.

Argo Heads Kiwanis Clubs of District

Succeeding another Peninsula educator, A. C. Argo of Redwood City, principal and superintendent of Sequoia High School, Tuesday was named as the next lieutenant governor of the Kiwanis Bay Area division.

His succession to Warren Natwick, San Mateo elementary school principal, will take place during the Oct. 11-14 Kiwanis California-Nevada district convention at Oakland.

Argo was president of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club two years ago, and tribute to his work in the club was paid last night by this year's president, James P. Hagan.

With Natwick presiding, at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, last night's dinner attended by 150 Kiwanians, was devoted to plans for the convention.

The division over which Argo will preside includes Kiwanis units in Berkeley, Alameda, San Leandro, Emeryville, Redwood City, Burlingame-San Mateo, Pittsburgh, Martinez, Richmond, and three clubs in San Francisco and three in Oakland.

Report Slated By Next July

Hopes of San Mateo County employes for a civil service system depend upon a committee of five, named by County Executive Frederick Peterson, which has yet to indicate its attitude. This was the announcement made to the employes association Tuesday by its president, Al Bullivant, at a meeting at Sodini's Tavern in Redwood City. Bullivant said that the commission, if it proposes to go ahead with a civil service plan, will not report until July, 1940.

Members of the civil service study commission are Mrs. Hassell Smith, Mrs. L. G. Owen, W. S. Grisinger, Edward Brady, and Al Bullivant. Co-ordinating the activity of the commission with that of Peterson's charter study commission is Patrick R. Rorke.

Bullivant announced that the county association now boasts 260 members and is striving for the 300 mark. Next meeting of the entire membership is scheduled for January in the north end of the county. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Mona Christensen and Mrs. Theresa Altieri.

Association members danced to music of the Native Sons Hillbilly Band following their banquet last night. The program, which included a minimum of business, was arranged by Louis Lodi.

GEORGE FINDS OUT ABOUT INSPECTORS

Dear Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

You said something the other day about the high quality of your products. Since several men and machines may have a hand in turning out any one product, how do you go about controlling the quality?

GEORGE CITIZEN

This product is up to snuff- it's real J-M quality
If we're sure they're good, we'll sell more -and have more jobs
INSPECTOR
JOBHOLDER

OUR INSPECTORS ARE JOB PROTECTORS

Dear George

How do we insure the quality of my products?

Well, in the first place, my jobholders know their business and turn out good work.

My company provides them with the best of machinery and tools.

But—since many hands usually help on every product, and since the materials used may come from many sources — there are always a few chances for slips or errors for which no one individual is to blame.

So, we employ expert inspectors, not to "snoop" on anybody's work, but to help every worker guard quality; to examine all raw materials, see that each step in the manufacturing process is carefully controlled, and to inspect the finished products.

These inspectors are real "dictators" as far as their jobs are concerned. Their word is law. Nobody can overrule them. If they say a whole carload of material is not up to standards of J-M quality and must go to the dump, it goes there.

They make chemical and physical tests of raw materials, and if they say "out," it's out. They are stationed at various points in production lines, and if they detect something going wrong, they stop the works and see that things are set right. And at the end of the line, they look things over with eagle eyes and say, "NO!" definitely—when they should.

The real object of J-M inspection is that no customer will find dissatisfaction with anything he buys of my company — no defect, no flaw, no weak spot.

Pleased customers mean steadier jobs for workers.

This is a phase of J-M production policy which should make both my customers and my jobholders feel safer. These inspectors are not just the watchdogs of quality for J-M customers; by working to satisfy customers, they are also job protectors.

Girl, 17, Discovers Bodies in Machine Near El Granada

As "the only way out," a middle-aged San Francisco woman described as having an "incurable disease" and her husband, a watchmaker, committed suicide on the San Mateo County Coastside, it was disclosed Wednesday when their bodies were found by a high school student.

The victims were Margot Zucker, 48, and Maurice Zucker, about 50, of 460 Ellis St., San Francisco.

The gruesome discovery was made about 7:30 a.m. by Alice Dutra, 17, daughter of Manuel Dutra, El Granada farmer.

The girl, riding horseback to Half Moon Bay High School, noticed the car parked for the second day in succession on a side road about 500 feet off the road leading from El Granada to the Half Moon Bay Gun Club. The location was about 1½ miles from El Granada, which is three miles north of Half Moon Bay.

Investigating, she found the bodies inside the car. A new garden hose had been attached to the exhaust pipe and run into the car through the cowl ventilator, the extra air space having been stuffed with a coat.

The girl summoned Constable Fred Simmons, who with morticians from the Dutra Funeral Home (not connected with Manuel Dutra), brought the bodies into Half Moon Bay.

The couple had died of carbon monoxide fumes, apparently two days ago. On the lap of the woman, who was fully dressed but wearing bedroom slippers, was a note, written in pencil on a pad, which read as follows:

"To whom it may concern;

"Notify Dr. Kleid, Market 2012, and Edmund Parrott, Graystone 4179. This is the only way out."

It was signed: "Margot and Maurice."

With discovery of the bodies, Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri disclosed that Monday morning San Francisco sheriff's officers had reported that Mrs. Zucker's brother, Parrott, referred to in her note, had found a letter at the Zucker home stating that they were planning to commit suicide "at the bridge over Spring Valley Lakes in San Mateo County." Parrott told Dr. P. Kleid, who had been caring for his sister, who in turn notified police.

Nieri investigated near the Spring Valley Lakes Dam and around the lakes at the time, but could find no trace of the Zuckers.

Elderly Man Hurt By Two Youthful Would-Be Bandits

An elderly, partially crippled storekeeper was recovering at his home in Lomita Park today from a deep scalp wound while two teen-age boys who look older were held in the county jail facing charges of assault with a deadly weapon as the result of an unsuccessful robbery attempt made late Saturday.

Captured as they attempted to flee on foot via Bayshore Blvd. were Orville Brown, 17, Brisbane, who said he was a CCC worker, and Eugene Miller, 16, San Bruno, who told jailers he was a San Mateo High School student.

According to Special Dep. Sheriff R. B. Hayden, they struck D. J. Reitmann, 71, in his store at 417 El Camino Real, Lomita Park, with a 15-inch length of shovel handle they had trimmed and taped into a billy club.

Only because of the screams of Mr. Reitmann's wife were the pair foiled in their robbery attempt, according to the officer.

The duo entered the store and asked to see some underwear. When the storekeeper turnd his back to get the goods from the shelf, one of them struck him. Mrs. Reitmann, who entered the store from the back room at just that moment, screamed.

One of the youths made for her, she said, but her screams attracted attention of a nearby storekeeper, whereupon the pair fled, running across fields towards the Bayshore.

Summoned by telephone, Hayden, special officer for the Lomita Park district, arrived almost at once, Mrs. Reitmann later said.

HALTED BY SLOUGH

The deputy sheriff was able to catch the fleeing pair when they were halted by a slough running parallel to the highway.

Treated by a physician who took three stitches in his scalp, Mr. Reitmann was believed to be not seriously injured, barring complications.

Though nervous and frightened, Mrs. Reitmann kept the store open the remainder of the afternoon.

Deputy sheriffs said that both the youths are husky and large for their ages, Brown being 6 feet 1 inch tall; Miller, 5 feet, 10 inches tall. They face hearing before Justice of the Peace Wade H. Clay.

SIMILAR TO OTHERS

Although some similarity was seen between the slugging and a holdup early the same morning on the Pedro Mountain Rd., inasmuch as the bandit pair in both cases were on foot, Brown and Miller claimed they were in bed all night Friday night. The mother of one of the boys who visited them at the jail supported their contention.

Officers also were investigating possibility they might have been the burglars who looted the Brisbane cafe of William Manbeck of $10 in cash and cigarettes early Saturday morning.

Ferry Building Urged As S. F. Bus Terminal

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26—An offer of the San Francisco Harbor Board to convert the second floor of the Ferry Building into "the finest bus terminal in the United States" was being discussed today in San Francisco by the board of harbor commissioners and the Pacific Greyhound Lines.

The proposal to convert the now little-used San Francisco landmark was cited as a move to furnish better service to Peninsula, East Bay and Marin County residents.

Announcement of the offer to remodel the building was made by Joseph F. Marias of the harbor board.

Frederick W. Ackerman, auditor and vice president of Greyhound, said that his company is studying the proposal.

Player Group Plans Benefit For RFC Fund

As the "nickel-a-week" fund being raised here for development of Redwood City's recreation center passed the $100 mark, plans were announced here for a benefit program for the new sports field which is being purchased by the City of Redwood City but must be developed by private funds.

Claude E. Van Patten, director of the Community Players, organization formed under the Sequoia Adult Night School, disclosed that his group on Nov. 17 and 18 would present "Three Men on a Horse," with all the proceeds going to the recreation center fund.

The Recreation Fund Committee (RFC), originators of the "nickel-a-week" move, voted Tuesday night to approve sponsorship of the presentation.

FIFTEEN IN CAST

The play, a farce-comedy in three acts requiring a cast of 11 men and 4 women, will be presented at Sequoia High School Auditorium, probably at a cost of 40 cents a person.

Van Patten said that talent would be sought not only in the player group but among outsiders for the performance.

Several hundred dollars should be realized from the two nights' presentations, in opinion of Ole S. Oleson, chairman of the RFC.

Working as an RFC committee with the players in presentation of the comedy will be L. E. Wolbert, Eugene Cerqui, Perry A. Bygdnes, Kenneth L. Bowen and J. A. Buhler, under appointment by Chairman Oleson.

$109 NOW IN FUND

Meanwhile, the fund being accumulated for the center took a sudden jump, as if encouraged by announcement of the benefit. Total now in the fund is $109.76, according to Treasurer James P. Hagan (see "ear" in upper left corner of this page).

Even as it did so, it was announced by Oleson that three more organizations had decided to participate in the "nickel-a-week" campaign, members agreeing to contribute regularly to the fund. They are the Menokirk Club and the Wesleyan Club, both affiliated with the First Methodist Church, and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

15 PERISH IN EXPLOSION

LONDON, Sept. 28 (AP)—The ministry of supply announced 15 persons were killed today by an explosion in a munitions factory somewhere in the north of Britain. Four persons were injured.

Soil Conservation District Formed By 118-108 Vote

By the narrow margin of 10 votes (118 to 108), the San Mateo County Soil Conservation District won public approval Tuesday, thus becoming the first such district to be organized under the new California soil conservation law.

County Engineer M. A. Grant predicted that the new district would be functioning in time to erect silt-catching basins in the Colma Creek area before next Winter's rains. Silting of the expensive Colma Creek drainage ditch from Lawndale through South San Francisco each year was a major factor in the formation of the soil control district.

Tenant farmers in the Colma region, fearing the soil district would disturb their present warming methods, were credited with the near-defeat of the proposal yesterday. In the Colma precinct the district plan was defeated 58 votes to 15. A 78 to 27 majority in Sharp Park and a 25 to 23 margin in Rockaway Beach saved the proposal. There were approximately 600 voters registered in the district, and 226 votes were cast.

It was pointed out that the Sharp Park precinct included no enrollees of the SRA camp there, only one enrollee being eligible to vote. He failed to go to the polls.

Next step, according to Grant, will be the canvass of the returns by the board of supervisors Oct. 9. The board will enter an order declaring the district organized. The board of directors will organize next, Grant said, and appeal to the federal and state governments for financial aid.

Preliminary plans, surveys and reports have been completed by the engineer's office to permit immediate application. These will be followed by detailed plans for each piece of property to be serviced, based on surveys to be made by the Soil Conservation Service. Headquarters for this district is at Watsonville.

Directors of the district and the number of votes each received: Lee Sneath 116, Harry C. Christen 116, Angelo Olcese 123, George Pappas 129, Ray T. Higgins 118.

East Palo Alto Awarded Third

With displays of equal attraction, in opinion of judges, Pescadero, its exhibit arranged by its junior chamber of commerce, and Colma, arranged by its vegetable association, split first honors for community displays in the agricultural division of the San Mateo County Fiesta, which closed Sunday night at Bay Meadows.

Pescadero, however, captured a trophy for the most unusual display, its exhibit taking the form of a brick house with accompanying yard where flowers grew into the various kinds of vegetables raised in the fertile Coastside community. Prize money of $500 for the first two places was split between the two communities.

East Palo Alto won third ($175) and Half Moon Bay fourth ($125) in the community display division.

PORTOLA VALLEY WINS

In the feature display division, Portola Valley, with exhibit supervised by Ed Jelich, captured first ($150); Half Moon Bay second ($125); Pescadero Junior Chamber of Commerce third ($100).

In the estate display division, Morshead Estate of Redwood City won first ($20); D. E. Koshland Estate of Hillsborough second ($15).

In the organization displays, Woodside Gardeners Association won first ($50); Peninsula Gardeners Association second ($40).

In the floral section of the fiesta, Avansino Mortensen & Co. captured highest honors with its magnificent orchid display, only such exhibit at the fiesta. Besides minor prizes, the firm won first prize ($600) for "display of orchid plants in flowers, with tropical and sub-tropical plants, arranged in naturalistic effect with suitable accessories"; first ($200) for "best display orchids, not less than 100 blooms"; first ($125) for best display orchids in bloom. The San Bruno company also won first prize ($125) for its gardenia display, winning over E. W. McLellan of Colma, who captured second prize ($100).

OTHER LARGE WINNERS

Other large prize winners included:

Stephen L. Vistica, San Mateo, first ($300) for naturalistic canyon scene with water fall; E. W. McLellan, Colma, first ($200) for garden setting with flowering plants; Perennial Garden Nursery, San Carlos, first ($175) for shady rock garden; B. J. Feigenbaum, Atherton, first ($175) for formal sunken garden; M. Asai, San Mateo, first ($150) for Japanese garden; Cypress Lawn Nursery, Colma, first ($125) for section of garden featuring carpet bed; Golden Gate Nursery, San Francisco, first ($125) for informal treatment covering 400 square feet; Peninsula Landscape Construction Co., San Bruno, first ($100) for landscape planting of surburban home; E. W. McLellan, Colma, first ($150) for best group of cut flowers of all commercial varieties.

The Albert O. Stein Co., San Francisco, was awarded three first prizes in as many classes for its exhibits in the clubhouse at Bay Meadows, total value being $680.

Boy Scout awards went to Troop 75, Lomita Park, first ($20); Troop 33, Half Moon Bay, second ($17); Troop 98, San Mateo, third ($14); Troop 48, San Mateo, fourth ($11). A fifth award, amount not listed, went to Troop 120, Redwood City. Sea Scout awards went to San Mateo Ship 17, first ($20); Burlingame Ship 111, second ($17). Girl Scout winners were San Mateo Troop 21, first ($20); Troop 24, San Mateo, second ($17); Troop 25, San Mateo, third ($14).

Garden display winners included: For section of garden, Burlingame-San Mateo Woman's Garden and Flower Club, first; Redwood City Woman's Club Garden Section, second. For section of garden of blooming plants, Woodside-Atherton Garden Club, first; Mrs. W. C. Blunk, San Mateo, second. For outdoor living or dining room, San Carlos Garden Club, first; East Palo Alto Grange, second. For Section of garden of surburban home, East Palo Alto Woman's Club Garden Section, first; Garden Study Club of Peninsula, second. Prizes were $75 for first, $60 for second place.

Winners of other awards may be learned by contacting the fiesta office in San Mateo.

Democrats To Make 1940 Campaign Plans

Organizational plans for the 1940 Democratic party campaign will be made at a Saturday noon luncheon in De Anza Hotel, San Jose, according to Clyde Redwine of Mountain View, vice chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee for the eighth congressional district. Sate Sen. John D. Foley will be toastmaster. Prof. Thomas Barclay of Stanford University and Prof. Victor Hunt of San Jose State College will discuss President Roosevelt's policies.

War Believed To Have Caused Pair To Part

The European war has brought an end to the marriage of a Peninsula social leader and one of Great Britain's most famous citizens, it appeared here when a divorce was filed in superior court in Redwood City by Carroll Tennyson against Lionel Halsam Lord Tennyson, grandson of the noted English poet laureate, Alfred Baron Tennyson, who died in 1892.

Lord Tennyson, now 49, and a veteran of the World War, in which he was wounded three times, is now a colonel commanding the 51st territorial anti-aircraft brigade stationed at the Duke of York School in London. He emerged from the World War as a major after entering four years earlier as a second lieutenant.

'EXTREME CRUELTY'

The divorce suit, filed through the San Francisco law firm of Sullivan, Roche & Johnson, charges Lord Tennyson with "extreme cruelty" and alleges that he has caused his wife "grievous mental suffering." The complaint points out that the couple have no children and no community property. Mrs. Tennyson asks no alimony.

According to the attorneys, the Tennysons went to England last June. Mrs. Tennyson returned alone to her beautiful home at 2088 Forest View Rd., Hillsborough, having separated from her husband July 14.

While the complaint does not state that the "grievous mental suffering" was caused by Lord Tennyson's decision to remain in England to help his country in the war, and Mrs. Tennyson was reported "not at home," it was assumed at the courthouse that his decision to remain in his native land and fight for his country had led to the separation.

MARRIED IN 1934

The couple were married Apr. 14, 1934, in Santa Barbara. Mrs. Tennyson is the former Carrol Elting Donner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elting of Santa Barbara. Her first husband was Joseph Donner.

Lord Tennyson, who is a writer, traveler, hunter, sportsman, cricket player and golfer of note, first came to California six years ago, as the guest of Nion Tucker of Hillsborough, to recuperate from a four-month illness of blood poisoning which had set in after he had been stung by a West Indian scorpion. He underwent three operations in London.

Coming for a three-week visit, he stayed eight months, taking back to England with him his American bride.

Every Winter except one since, he has visited in Hillsborough, where the family home is a showplace.

CAPTAINED CRICKETERS

Lord Tennyson missed returning to the Peninsula in the Winter of 1937-38 when he stayed in England to captain that country's cricket team in the international matches against India. While in England, the couple attended the coronation of King George VI.

Lord Tennyson has two sons by a former marriage, the Hon. Harold Tennyson, now 20, a graduate of Eton, and the Hon. Mark Tennyson, now 19.

IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—W. N. Peters, retired Callaway County farmer, reports he went to bed one night recently with sandy hair and awakened with a white thatch. "But then," he says philosophically, "most men of my age, 85, are white-haired. In the cases of my friends the change has come more gradually."

Bright Prospects Seen for Coastside

HALF MOON BAY, Sept. 26—Visualizing a bright future for the San Mateo County Coastside, Al C. Joy, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. public relations executive, last night foresaw the time when industry and superior residential conditions would bring a large influx of population to the Half Moon Bay area. Joy spoke before a gathering of Western San Mateo County Progressive Association members and guests.

He also discussed modern living as compared to that of historical days, and modern roads, comparing them with the trails of yesterday.

Joy's talk followed a report by Frank Fetter on status of highway projects of interest to the Coastside.
